Mastering Chess Exchanges

by Jacob Aagaard & Renier Castellanos

Few books have dealt with the topic of exchanges in chess, leaving this important part of chess strategy a mystery to most. Aagaard and Castellanos break down the topic into crystal-clear themes, including piece preferences, tension, weaknesses, colour complexes, king safety, and endgames, illustrating the concepts with illuminating examples

Beating the Queen's Gambit - Indian Style!
by Renier Castellanos

Castellanos completes his cutting-edge repertoire for Black against 1.d4, with the Vienna Variation (4.Nc3 dxc4) and the Catalan (4.g3 dxc4) as the main topics. This book also provides thorough guidance against all of White's significant alternatives on moves 2-4. This is everything you need to handle 1.d4 Nf6 variations where White avoids the Nimzo-Indian Defence.

Win with the French!
by Vassilios Kotronias

Win with the French! offers a complete, robust repertoire for Black after 1.e4 e6. Kotronias presents a two-pronged approach in the most critical main lines, with a theoretically bulletproof, professional-grade option and a sound yet combative choice to increase winning chances with less memorization.
