

Preface 1

Acknowledgments 7

Abbreviations 8

Annotation Symbols 9

A Note on Play at Odds 10

British Money and Notation 11

1. The Making of a Master, 1836–1862 13

• Chess in Prague: A Big Silence • Viennese Chess Before Steinitz • Enter a Poor Student • Club Tournaments and a Visit by Harrwitz • The 1861–1862 Tournament • The Games in Vienna

2. The London Congress, May–August 1862 35

• Preparations for the Tournament • The First Two Weeks • The “Grand Week” • Conclusion of the Tournament • Steinitz’s Tournament Games • Aside from the Tournament • Match with Dubois

3. “The Greco of the present time,” 1862–1863 63

• London in 1862 • London Chess Club and Pursell’s • Chess and the Divans • The Grand Divan and Simpson’s • Odds Games and Playing for Money • After the Tournament • Blackburne Match • Match with Deacon • Casual Games Later in 1863 • Match with Green (1863/1864)

4. Quiet Years, 1864–1865 100

• Games in 1864 • Early 1865 • Dublin Chess Congress 1865 • Steinitz as Blindfold Player • Back in England • Failure Against de Vere

5. Dethroning Anderssen, 1866 118

• The Divan Transformed • From Early 1866 to the B.C.A. Congress • British Chess Association 1866 Congress • Early Days of the Westminster Chess Club • Anderssen Match: Arrangements and Schedule • Anderssen Match: The Games • Becoming a Father • Bird–Steinitz Match • Other Games in 1866

6. Paris and Dundee, 1867 149

• Exit from the Westminster Club • First Visit to Scotland • Paris International 1867 • Dundee Congress 1867

7. Difficult Years, 1868–1871 171

• British Chess Association 1868/9 Congress • More Games in 1869 • City of London Chess Club Origins • First Visit to Oxford • Baden-Baden, July–August 1870 • Back to Oxford • Quiet Year in 1871

8. Big Successes, 1872–1873 198

• The City of London Chess Club Handicap • Steinitz in Oxford Again • British Chess Association Congress 1872 • Steinitz–Zukertort Match • Later in 1872 • Vienna Correspondence Match • Events in Early 1873 • Visit to The Hague • Emperor’s Cup, Vienna 1873 • After the Tournament

9. Development and Crises, 1874–1876 230

• Visiting the Provinces, 1874 • Back in London • Last Visit to Oxford, 1875 • Games in London and Glasgow, 1875 • Time of Crisis • Two Bad Mistakes • Games, Early 1876 • Second Blackburne Match • Aftermath • A Second Chess Column

10. Absent from the Board, 1877–1881 257

• The Fraser Letter • Back in Circulation • The Divan Crisis • Events in 1878 • Summer in Paris • Casual Games, 1878–1879 • Events in London, 1878/1879 • Crisis at the London Figaro • 1880: German Visit and Breach with Bird • Casual Games, 1880 • Dublin Visit, January 1881 • In London and Germany

11. A Champion Returns—and Departs, 1882 281

- The Early Months • Vienna International 1882 • Leaving The Field
- 12. Farewell to London, 1883 304
- London 1883 Tournament • The Last Column • Aftermath, 1884 Onwards
- 13. Last Visits to England, 1895–1899 321
- First Match with Liverpool • Hastings Congress 1895 • 1896 and 1897 in Brief • Back in Europe, 1898 • London International Tournament 1899
- Appendices
- I. Match and Tournament Record 347
- II. Dubious and Spurious Games 348
- III. Extracts from Steinitz’s Review of Wormald’s Chess Openings (1875) 350
- IV. First “Ink War” of 1876–1877 352
- V. Leaving The Field, 1882 359
- VI. Steinitz’s Grievances (1883) 364
- VII. Steinitz Hits Back—Extracts from His International Chess Magazine Column 366
- VIII. Bird on Steinitz (1890) 369
- IX. MacDonnell on Steinitz (1894) 371
- Chapter Notes 375
- Bibliography 397
- Index of Opponents (to game numbers) 401
- Index of Openings—Traditional Names (to game numbers) 403
- Index of Openings—ECO Codes (to game numbers) 405
- General Index (to page numbers) 406